22nd December 2010

Valued Clients,

On 22nd October, we notified the industry that due to a number of unforeseen events we were reducing the export receivals on all services from five (5) days back to four (4) as well as the limiting of late receivals to rural rail exports only. Since this date we have been monitoring the situation and are pleased to advise that as of Monday 3rd January 2011 the following will be in effect.

1. All services will have export receivals of five (5) consecutive working days before and inclusive of the cut-off day. Working days are Monday to Sunday inclusive. Vessel receivals opened prior Monday 3rd January 2011 will remain at four (4) days.
2. Late receival restrictions will remain in place and will only be accepted for rural rail exports.

We appreciate the support and understanding that has been shown during this period.

Yours sincerely
