Vessel Delay, Sydney Imports to discharge at DP World and No Export Cargo to Load in Sydney

Dear Valued Customers,

NYK Line wishes to advise that due to severe port congestion the MOL ENTERPRISE V.027N/S has been delayed.

As a result of the vessel delay and in order to have vessel back on long term schedule, we will not be loading any export cargo in Sydney, and all current Export bookings will need to be transferred to the VECCHIO BRIDGE V.100N

Also as a result of Port Congestion, all Sydney Import cargo will now discharge at DP World Port Botany in Sydney, instead of Patricks.
